

Bottles and Cans

Jim Swanson and Mark Trullinger

Intro

Am C D
Opened one eye on my buddy's kitchen floor;
Am C D
To my knee, it's a hung over chore.
C G C G
I saw a sea of bottles, an ocean of cans;
C G D
Strewn on every counter, sink, and table.
C G C G D
Just then I remember what my wife told me last night,
D7
She said, "There's the door."

Bridge

G
"See me in church on Sunday";
C
"I'll bring the baby."
G Am C D
"And you'd better be ready for that one-man parade."
G C
"Up the center aisle singing 'Just as I Am' ";
G Am D G
"So is it going to be me or them damn bottles and cans?"
C D
"Give it to the Lord or go away."

Am D C G
She's right, the Lord is what I need.
G
No more half-a-way;
C
No more half-a-man.
G Em C D
I'm talkin' straight to you Lord, just man to man.

Refrain

Am D Am D
You can have my heart, just as I am;
Am C G
And you can keep those bottles and cans.

Middle Part

G C G C G
Where does the love of God go when the heart's still at war?
G Am G D
Where does the love of God go, do you know?
C G Am G
So many stories to tell that will never be told:
Am D
Stories of the bravest and the best;
Am D
Of soldiers that stood the final test;
Am D
Stories more precious than gold;

Am D
(In battle, their breath is on my shoulder);
Am D
Of warm blood growing cold;
Am C G
And young men who will never grow old.

Refrain
Am D
Lord, you can have my past,
Am D
Just as I am;
Am C G
And you can keep those bottles and cans.

Instrumental

Bridge
G
I'll see you in church on Sunday;
C
You bring the baby;
G Am C D
And yes, I am ready for that one-man parade.
G C
Up the center aisle singing "Just as I Am."
G C D G
It is going to be you babe, not those bottles and cans.

Am D
I gave it to the Lord and so I'll stay;
Am D
I gave to the Lord and now I'll say.

Refrain
Am D
Lord, you can have my heart;
Am D
Everything I am,
Am D
You can have my past,
Am D
Just as I am.
Am C G
And you can keep those bottles and cans.

Outro
G C
Just as I am, half a man
C G C
Just as I am, half a man
C D G
And you can keep those bottles and cans.
